Please complete a Jury form (in detail) for each category of item that you intend to sell at the Market. This allows the judges for the Jury to separately evaluate each type of item that is submitted. Also, the Market may have varying degrees of space available for individual categories; separate forms help determine which items may be accommodated.

Please submit 1-2 actual samples of your work that are representative of EACH art/craft that you intend to sell in the Market. Please be sensitive to sample size due to the high volume of jury applicants and our space constraints. Jewelers may bring a 16 x 20 inch display board or tray (with jewelry tightly secured to it) and bring as many samples as fit within that space. Bath and body crafters may bring one of each type of product showing a representative sampling of all products. Paper crafts such as cards, may bring multiple samples. Please also submit photos of your booth display. Remove all identifying tags and prices from products to preserve applicant's confidentiality. If you have questions, please call the Market office at 647-2060. We are available to help provide feedback so that applicants have the best possible chances of being approved.

Application forms, fees, samples and photographs need to be delivered between 9am and 10 am on February 6, 2009 to the Whatcom Volunteer Center (725 N. State Street, parking available in the rear of the building). All applicants are responsible for attending the jury. BFM will not send confirmation or reminders of the jury. No accommodations will be made for early or late drop off or pick up. Products will be available for pick-up between 2 and 3 pm. No exceptions will be made. No other juries will be held for the 2010 season.

2010 BELLINGHAM FARMERS MARKET CRAFT JURY APPLICATION

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A separate jury form must be completed for each category of item that you intend to sell in the market. This is a very important section. You must list all of the items that you intend to sell in the specific category that you are applying. For example, if you are jurying wood items and pottery items, please complete two separate forms. Then on each form please list the specific items that are being juried (i.e. such as wood plates and wood shelves; or pottery bowls and pottery sculpture). Please carefully consider the information that you write and be sure to include all relevant details. Describe your art/craft, and the process and materials used to create your work. During the jury, in addition to seeing your work in person, the information written below will become all the information that the craft jurors will have about your product. Your descriptions are an important aid in helping to evaluate your work. If you need more room you may attach a separate piece of paper.

Describe your art/craft:

Describe the materials used to create your art/craft:

If you are jurying Bath & Body products please include a list of all ingredients with this jury application.

Describe the process, including tools that you use to create your art/craft:

Returning Vendors Only: If you are jurying a new product, please explain how the new product fits within your existing product line.
